3. [REDACTED]

4. [REDACTED] Received a call from Mr. Morris, in the office of Representative Richard E. Lankford, requesting the current status of the Agency early retirement legislation. Advised it had been transmitted to Congress but not yet introduced.

5. [REDACTED] Received a request from Bob Michaels, House Defense Appropriations Committee staff, to come by tomorrow morning if possible to discuss a question raised with regard to deletion of material from a Department of Defense transcript.

6. [REDACTED] In response to two communications dated 22 March from Representative Lindley Beckworth, one a hand-written letter addressed to Mr. McCone concerning an unnamed individual who desires employment with the Agency as a pilot and the other a letter from [REDACTED] of Texas and Alabama, apparently the individual in question desiring employment as a pilot, advised Mr. Beckworth that although the Agency does not employ pilots as such, we would be pleased to provide application forms for forwarding to [REDACTED]

7. [REDACTED] The Director appeared before the combined Subcommittees of Senate Armed Services and Senate Appropriations. See Memo for the Record.
